EDITORIAL FORMULA

: The specialist daily Cobouw aims at the Dutch construction industry and is independent. Cobouw aims at persons who have a professional relation with the construction industry. These involve policymakers, customers, project developers, designers, consultants, financiers, suppliers and anybody who is involved in construction. Cobouw also comprises the feature Building news, etc., which provides news about building activities in various stages of preparation and the calls for tenders of the authorities. The technical feature reflects the innovations in material and equipment. Cobouw brings news in the political, economic, financial and social fields.
